STARSHIP HOSPITAL FUNDRAISER

Hi everyone

As you might know, in the past, room 1 has held an annual bake sale to raise money for Starship Hospital. Recently we haven't been able to hold a bake sale but this year we plan to hold one during the week of 21st November - 24th November.

It would be very much appreciated if your child could do some baking at home to bring along (this is not compulsory). If your child wants to buy something the most expensive thing will be about five dollars.

Thank-you.

PRINCIPAL'S NEWS...

Welcome to Week 4!

Hope you all watched the Black Ferns on Saturday night. What an amazing game! Not that I'm at all biased but those girls could teach the lads a thing or two. Good luck for the final!

- * Welcome to Mrs Alicia Benefield... Alicia Benefield has been appointed as my Principal Release teacher for next year and together we will be teaching the senior (year 4-6) class. Alicia is an experienced primary teacher who has two children and lives in Te Kuiti. We are very pleased to have Alicia joining our team.
- * Athletic Sports - Run, Jump, Throw... This Friday we are all attending the Piopio Primary School Athletic Sports. Details have already been circulated, however if you are still unsure of the organisation for Friday please contact the office.

All children have been practising daily and will be well prepared for Friday's event.

Thank-you to those of you who are assisting with transport and/or helping at stations on the day. We will be recording results and presenting certificates as we go, so will need an Āria person at each station.

- * End of Year Assessment... Staff are beginning end of year assessment today in preparation for writing end of year reports etc.

If your child is absent for these assessments we will try our best to catch up at a later date.

- * Gumboot Friday... What a great effort at very short notice. All for a very, very good cause! Thank-you everyone for the $200 raised. However, the smell in the senior classroom was not great!!

Have a great week,
Pam Voyce.
